HUNDREDS COME FOR DEDICATION OF NEW BUILDING

Masons From Rock Island, Mercer and Henry Counties to Attend.

BIG PARADE IS PLANNED

Knights Templar Will Act as Escort—Grand Master D. D. Darrah to Be Chief Guest.

The interest of the Masonic fraternity of this part of the state is centered on the dedication tomorrow of the beautiful new local temple, located on Fifth avenue and Eighteenth street. Officers of the grand lodge are to be in attendance, in addition to hundreds of members of the order in Rock Island, Henry and Mercer counties. Some 1,200 invitations have been issued.

Plans for the big affair have been completed and if the weather man will be kind, the event should prove very interesting. The ceremonies will be exclusively for Masons and their ladies. The accommodations are not sufficient to include the general public tomorrow, but on Saturday evening, from 7 to 11, open house will be kept and every one will be welcome to visit the building at that time.

THE PARADE.

Indications are that the parade will be one of the features of the day. S. R. Davis has been named as marshal and will have as his aides, Captain E. H. Dunavir, C. A. Halgren and R. J. Fullerton. The parade is to form at 2 o'clock sharp at the Masonic Temple, the line of march being as follows: West on Fifth avenue to Seventeenth street; north on Seventeenth to Third avenue; west on Third avenue to Fifteenth street; north on Fifteenth to Second avenue; east on Second avenue to Twentieth street; south on Twentieth to Fifth avenue, west on Fifth avenue to the Temple.

Rock Island commandery, No. 18, Knights Templar, in full uniform, will lead the procession. Following will come Blue Lodge Masons, with the youngest lodge first and the older lodges in order, while the two local organizations, Rock Island and Trio, will act as escorts for the members of the grand lodge, who are to bring up the rear.

Davenport Masons are to attend the exercises 200 strong and in addition will have a band. A local band will also be in line.

THE DEDICATION.

The dedication will occur at 3 o'clock, the solemn and impressive service being in charge of Delmar D. Darrah of Bloomington, grand master of the state of Illinois, and other members of the grand lodge.

From 6 to 7, a buffet luncheon is to be served and from 8 to 9 there will be a reception in honor of the grand lodge officers. Dancing will be enjoyed from 9 to 12, the music being furnished by the Criterion orchestra. The grand lodge visitors are also to be entertained at a luncheon at noon at the New Colonial.

Comforting.

"Mr. Chairman," said the orator, who had already occupied the platform for twenty minutes, amid many interruptions from the audience. "Mr. Chairman, may I appeal on a point of order? There is really so much desultory conversation going on in parts of the hall that it is impossible for me to hear a word I am saying."

LOYAL MOTHER STANDING BY THAW IN EVERY PHASE OF WORLD-FAMOUS CASE

Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw and her son Harry at Concord, N. H.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw is in Concord, where her son Harry awaits the decision of Governor Felker on the question of Thaw's extradition. The white-haired mother, who is now past 70, stands by her son today just as she has through every phase of the world-famous case since Thaw's arrest after the murder of Stanford White.

"Thaw's latest utterance is an attack on William T. Jerome," says a sympathetic source. "He has shown himself clearly in sympathy with those who, in his own closing speech at the second homicide trial, he classed as 'a lot of degenerates.'" Mrs. Thaw declared, "In that speech he said: 'Certain people would be only too glad to have this fellow adjudged a lunatic so that the thing could not come out.'"

"Since that speech Jerome has changed his attitude and has worked so consistently with these 'certain people' that not only has a sane, acquitted man been imprisoned for years, but, like the human hyena he has since been designated, Jerome trailed the fugitive across the border into Canada and is still on the scent."

One of the most influential citizens of New Hampshire has urged Thaw's removal from the state. The man is former United States Senator William E. Chandler, an able lawyer. "It is difficult to devise an argument to justify lawyers in taking his money for their contention that the not fleeing from justice? What was he doing? Was not this a just judgment upon him? If so, was he not fleeing from justice in New York to accomplish defiance of justice in New Hampshire? The Empire state has invoked obedience by the Granite state to the constitution of the United States. Is it to appeal in vain?"

CHEWING TOBACCO GROWING IN FAVOR

Shown by Recent Large Increase in Sales of a Popular Chewing Tobacco.

Recent increases in the sales of Piper Heidsieck, a highly-grade chewing tobacco, are pointed out by tobacco experts as an indication that there is a decidedly growing preference for plug tobacco. It is the general opinion in the tobacco trade that this is due to wider appreciation of the fact that tobacco is most satisfying when chewed. The manufacturers of Piper Heidsieck are taking advantage of the present trend to bring this tobacco to the general attention of tobacco users here.

Local tobacco dealers have been supplied with a limited number of standard safety razors and are giving one to each customer who purchases ten cents' worth of Piper Heidsieck. The razor is going so fast, say the dealers, that the supply is being rapidly depleted. And experienced tobacco users seem to be in the opinion that Piper Heidsieck is a very fine, satisfying chewing tobacco. The occasion, therefore, seems to be an all-around bargain.—(Adv.)

CURIOUS HERMIT CRABS.

They Keep Housemaids, and Also Use Sponges for Protection.

It has been said that crabs are as artful as "a barrow load of monkeys," and no one who has read Professor Edward Step's "Messmates; A Book of Strange Companionships in Nature," will deny that there is considerable truth in the remark. Amazing indeed are some of the revelations which the professor makes regarding crabs.

He relates, for instance, how the common hermit crab actually keeps a housemaid to clean out his house. When he first starts life this particular species of crab hunts for some large shellfish's shell in which he can live at ease, rent free. He usually chooses a large whelk shell and introduces a large seaworm, belonging to what is known as the "neris" family and which grows to a length of six or eight inches, to keep the interior of the shell clean. The crab feeds heartily on sea creatures that wander carelessly into the shell and throws the indigestible parts of them about the floor. The neris worm promptly consumes these remains and keeps the shell as clean as a new pin.

The artfulness of this crab, too, is strikingly illustrated by the ingenious manner in which he protects himself against the large fish which look upon him as an excellent article of food. Sometimes he induces a sponge to grow on his shell. Sponges in a living condition give out a strong odor, which is distinctly unpleasant to fish, and even a dogfish will not attack a crab protected in this manner.

WALKS OFF DOCK INTO THE RIVER

W. J. McGlade of Winfield, Iowa, Is Drowned Late Saturday Evening.

BODY RECOVERED SUNDAY

Discovered by Men at Island City Boat Club—Inquest Held This Morning.

So badly intoxicated as not to be responsible for his actions, according to the statement of witnesses, W. J. McGlade of Winfield, Iowa, aged 40, Saturday night at 8:30 staggered onto the ferry dock at the foot of Eighteenth street, and walking to the edge, stepped off into space. Several well dressed men who were loitering about the dock, heard the splash and fully grasped the situation, but made no effort to save the unfortunate man. In fact they stood idly by without even giving the alarm. The body was recovered yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, opposite the Island City boat club at the foot of Twelfth street. The coroner's jury at Whelan's undertaking parlors, this morning returned a verdict of "accidental drowning."

HOPE IS THROWN.

McGlade, according to witnesses, had been drinking heavily, and seemingly had no idea as to his whereabouts. After the fatal plunge, the body was seen struggling in the water by A. W. Cameron, a ship carpenter, who was some distance farther down the stream. Cameron threw a line to the drowning man, but states that McGlade made no effort to grab the rope or save himself. His head was above water and the rescue could easily have been accomplished had the victim grasped the line.

Yesterday morning members of the Island City boat club, while sitting on the club house veranda, discerned the body floating down stream, a short distance from the shore. Manning a boat, Paul Eastman and M. S. Ecker towed the corpse to shore and notified the police and coroner. It was removed to Whelan's undertaking parlors.

A BRICKLAYER.

Papers found in the dead man's clothing showed him to be a resident of Winfield, Iowa, and relatives at that point were immediately notified. They arrived here this noon and took charge of the body. In the clothing was also found a card issued at Burlington, Iowa, showing that the deceased was a member of Bricklayer's Union No. 10. A small quantity of silver, $3.75 in all was found in the pockets, together with a paper on which had been written, "Jacob Wolfe, 1673 Fourth avenue, Rock Island, Ill."

Boils Are a Bad Indication

No Time Should be Lost in Purifying Your Blood.

At the first appearance of pimples and boils the blood should be given a good purifying internal bath with S. S. S., the greatest blood purifier known to man. This remarkable remedy has the peculiar action of seeking through the intestines directly into the blood. In a few minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every emunctory becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, lungs, kidneys, bladder, to all work to the one end of expelling out every irritating, every pain-inflicting atom of poison. It dissolves by irrigation all accumulations in the joints, causes acid secretions to dissolve, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the skin that cause boils and other skin eruptions.

And best of all, this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach. In a very brief time S. S. S. has the reconstructive process so under control that all eruptive places heal. You can get S. S. S. at any drug store. Beware of any effort to sell you something claimed to be "just as good." If yours is a peculiar case and you desire expert advice, write to the Swift Specific Co., 212 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
